

Checklist

-
- Manuscript in MS Word format.
  - Cover letter from the corresponding author.
  - Written in double-spaced standard 10-point font.
  - Presented in the following order (for an original article): title page, Abstract and keywords, Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, Conclusions, Acknowledgements, References, tables, and figure legends.
  - All pages numbered consecutively, starting with the title page.
  - Author information page with article title, full name(s) and ORCIDs (open researcher and contributor IDs) of all author, affiliation(s), corresponding author's e-mail and postal addresses, and footnote (if any).
  - Up to 250 words, and up to 2500 words (not including the abstract, tables, figures, and references) in the main body of the manuscript (for an original article).
  - Up to six relevant MeSH keywords.
  - All tables and figures are referenced in numerical order in the main text.
  - Figure(s) provided as separate files in TIFF, PPT format at a high resolution.
  - References listed in the correct format. All references listed in the References section are cited in the text.
-